PROVEN MULTI-DOMAIN INTELLIGENCE EXPERTISE

COMPLEXITY TO CLARITY

Applying proven gold-standard methodology, Global Risk Consulting (GRC) Group’s intelligence services specialise in providing bespoke intelligence solutions to inform you of current and developing threats and opportunities to your operations, and to provide expert knowledge to allow you to make informed decisions.

Intelligence is key to understanding the risks that threats pose to your interests and, by utilising a variety of products, GRC provides a wide range of intelligence services to advise and assist you in understanding those risks. Services include:

Intelligence & Threat Assessments

With our experience operating in dynamic threat environments, we aim to keep you updated on current and developing threats. Through our analytical tools we will identify your threats, their capabilities, and intentions, in order to proactively protect and minimize risk to your operations while detecting and exploiting the weakness and strengths of opposing threat actors.

Geopolitical Analysis

Our team works to enable your operations by providing rigorous predictive analysis to national and international political ambiguity.

By assisting you in understanding the changing dynamics between culture, politics, geography, and security we provide you consultancy at the geopolitical level, assisting you in identifying and mitigating risk to your personnel and resources.

Strategic Consultancy

At GRC we aim to help you understand who and what your key threats are. By better understanding and analysing threat intentions we help you recognise threat courses of actions you may be vulnerable to and allow you to respond in a way which is effective and protects your interests.

Similarly, should you be undertaking critical operations, we are here to assist you in recognising critical vulnerabilities that may develop to assist your overall security.

Crisis Response Management

In a world of increasing uncertainty crises can often develop rapidly and with minimal forewarning.

Whether it be a major weather event, civil unrest, or a dynamic security situation, GRC will assist you with the development of, and ongoing support for, a crisis management plan to ensure you can overcome any situation.
